YAME ARCHITECTURE STUDIO is above all a temperament, a character that expresses itself through perseverance and creativity. Based on group work and shared knowledge, Convinced that a successful project is a collectively designed and realized project, with a desire to go beyond individuality to dialogue, cross knowledge and share.

The Architects Mariam Chaouki and Meryem Fakkar met at the ENSA Paris Malaquais, located in the buildings of fine arts Paris. Having gained experience with large structures, they combine their knowledge and surround themselves with professionals in a tight-knit approach.

This young Moroccan agency is developing internationally, the agency develops on two poles, residential and tourist architecture on the one hand, and on the other hand public facilities.

Court building

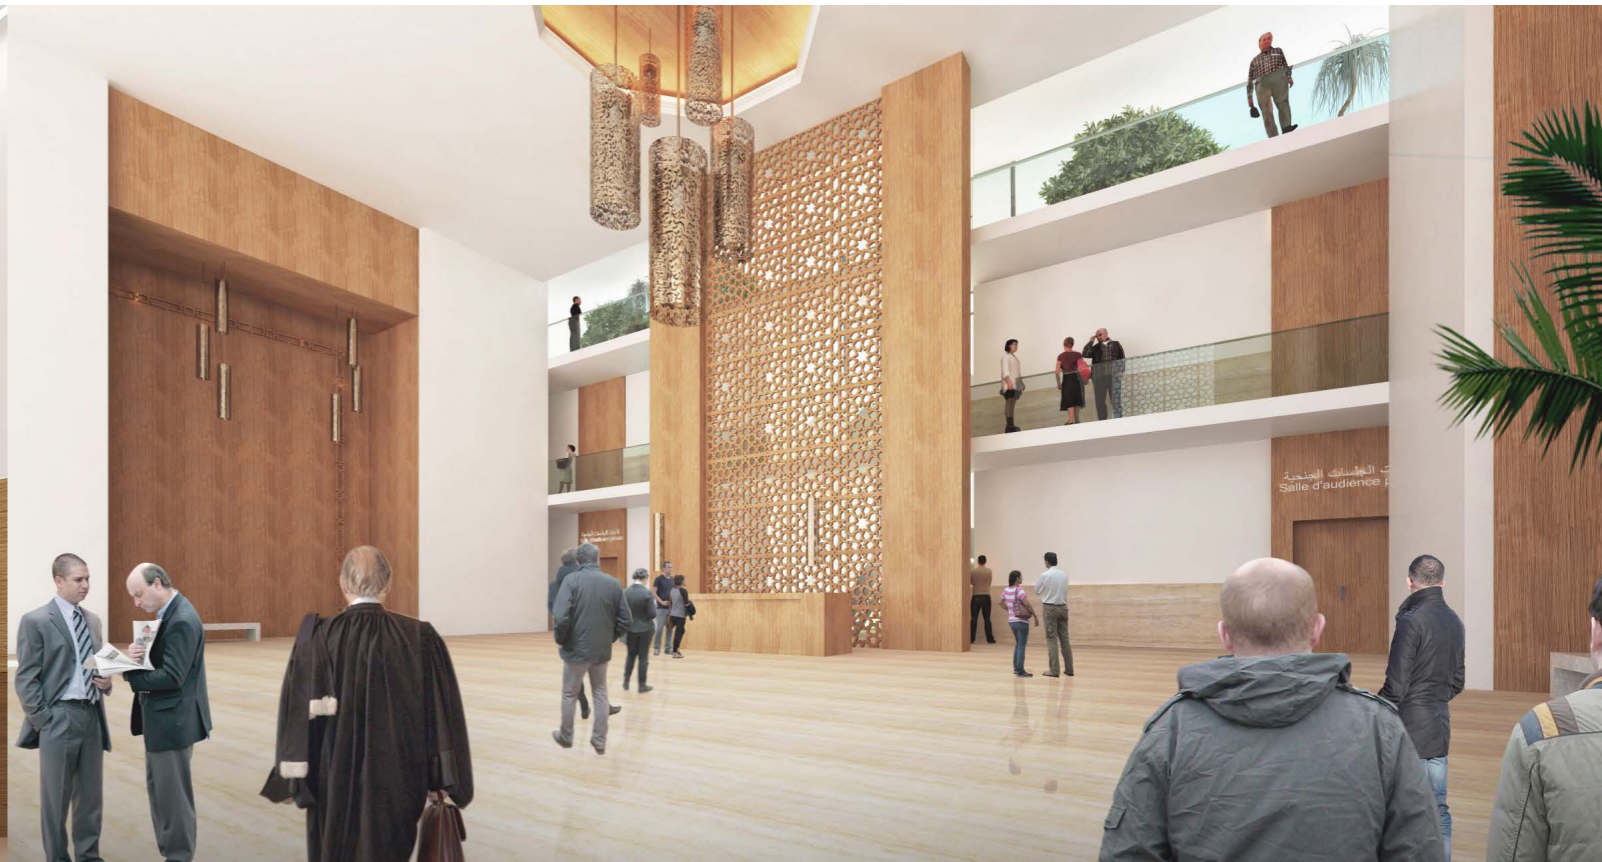

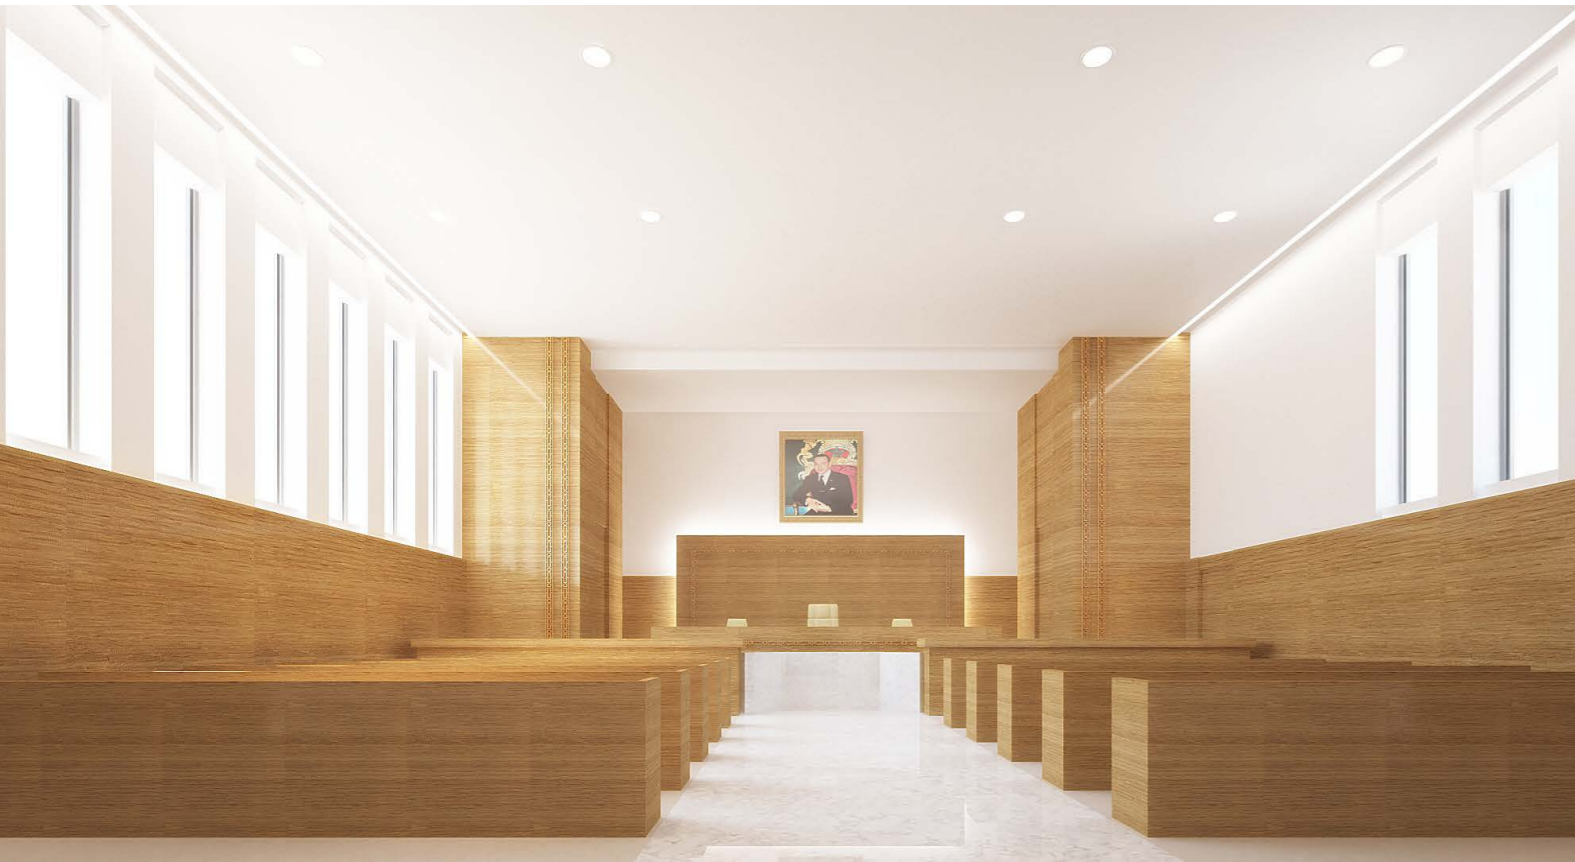

An architectural rendering of a modern, multi-story building with a white facade and a prominent section with a light beige finish. The building features large windows with intricate geometric patterns and a flat roof with greenery. A Moroccan flag flies on a tall pole in front of the building. In the foreground, a blue car is parked on the right, and several people are walking on the sidewalk. A man in a dark suit is visible on the far left, talking on a mobile phone. The sky is blue with light clouds, and there are palm trees and other greenery scattered around the building.
